Thoughts from an Eagle:

Young Brother

James 1:13-15

By Aman D.

I know a young brother who fell for a lie. / I dunno why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know young brother who followed deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.

- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know a young brother who stepped off the way / Cause he felt the narrow path was too high a price to pay.

- He stepped off the way to follow deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.
- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno know why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know a young brother who fled from the truth / Since he stepped off the way he said what's the use.

- He fled from the truth to step off the way
- He stepped off the way to follow deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.
- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know young brother who hardened his heart / His whole life fell apart when he hardened his heart.

- He hardened his heart when he fled from the truth / he fled from the truth to step off the way
- He stepped off the way to follow deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.
- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno know why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know young brother who committed a crime / He received a lot of time to commit such a crime.

- He committed the crime cause he hardened his heart.
- He hardened his heart when he fled from the truth / he fled from the truth to step off the way.
- He stepped off the way to follow deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.
- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know young brother who was locked up in prison / The Lord set him apart just to see if he'd listen.

- He was locked up in prison cause he committed the crime / he committed the crime cause he hardened his heart.
- He hardened his heart when he fled from the truth / He fled from the truth to step off the way.
- He stepped off the way to follow deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.
- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

I know young brother who heard God's word / Ain't that just absurd, NOW he hears God's word.

- He heard God's word while locked up in prison.
- He was locked up in prison cause he committed the crime / he committed the crime cause he hardened his heart.
- He hardened his heart when he fled from the truth / He fled from the truth to step off the way.
- He stepped off the way to follow deception, that tickled his lustful desires that led him.
- He followed deception to cover the lie / I dunno why he fell for the lie. Perhaps he'll die.

Ending one - I know young brother who denied Christ. As Scripture fortold, that brother died twice.

Ending two - I know a young brother who surrendered to Christ.

- His spirit was renewed, and all things were made right.
- He surrendered to Christ after believing God's word / He believed God's word while he was locked up in prison.
- He was locked up in prison cause he committed the crime / God forgave him his crime and gave him a new heart.
- And with his new heart he embraced the truth / He embrace the truth and got back on the way.
- He got back on the way to forsake deception, cause those lustful desires had no longer led him.
- He forsook deception to confront the lie / To himself he died, now in Christ he's alive.

And he has eternal life.

Welcome Home

On Thursday the 26th we celebrated the homecoming of John P. It is always a blessing to share in a new person's first day outside. He is doing very well. His first meal was at the 5th Ave. Café. He could not believe the amount of food on his plate. No tray, no spork, no hurry, just a pleasant meal with new friends. A few days later he went out with a group of us for a birthday celebration for Deb to the Mandarin Buffet. Wow was all he could say at the many tables of food in all categories. He is concerned about needing larger sizes of clothes, if this keeps up. Oh, the trials of being free! We look forward to the day when you get out and enjoy your new life with your new or old friends.

Attitude

Your attitude is a very important part of your daily life and wellbeing. If you are constantly thinking negatively and looking at the downside of everything, your day will be dreary, lackluster, full of emptiness and sadness in your heart. If on the other hand you do your best with the Lord's help to look on the bright side of things, to remember the good things God has given you and has done for you, your day will be wonderful, uplifting and fruitful.

Founders Corner

Once there was a man...

He may have even given his life to his Lord...

Very slowly and over many years he made bad decisions - they gradually moved him away from his Lord. His Lord's heart was broken. His Lord did all he could to stop him, except remove his free will. The man continued small and destructive decisions. Each destructive decision took him just a small distance further from his Lord. Soon, he didn't even hear the voice of his Lord. Then after many small, destructive decisions - he made another small, destructive decision, but this small, destructive decision destroyed the innocence of someone he loved. It wasn't huge for him, but, oh for the other people - destruction!

High cost, high loss...

Others looked at what he had done, and their judgment was harsh and unending. However, in the midst of his repentance, his Lord gathered him gently and lovingly into His arms. He took him through all the consequences of his small, destructive decisions. He restored him. He clothed him in His righteousness and made him shine in the brightness of His love. Because he was forgiven much, his love for his Lord is immense. He is beautiful in His sight!!
