Quote for the Month

The Word of God

"If we get above our Bibles, and cease making the written word of God our sole rule both as to faith and practice, we shall soon lie open to all manner of delusion and be in great danger of making shipwreck of our faith and a good conscience. Our blessed Lord, though he had the Spirit of God without measure, yet was always governed by, and fought the devil with, "It is written!"

Pastor's Thoughts

Society is fickle in its evaluation of who or what is important. Those we value we single out as priority, prominent, those we deem unimportant we ignore. The promotion of certain lives matter, an attempt to bring awareness, became exclusive, separating individuals until it became counter productive to its origins and its original message was lost. Any time we single out and promote or reject another individual we tend to lose unity and create an even more divisive, self-indulged "community".

The scripture in Matthew 25:40 "The King will reply, 'Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.', is not saying that the King considered them "least", but it reflected the world's evaluation of them. The King pointed out that even what society would consider least He still holds in high valuation. It is royal blood that was shed for them.

It speaks to the fact that His people were serving and helping based on their love for the King and His creation. They served whoever they could, wherever they were. Their motivation was love. They received a great love and wanted to share love greatly.

It teaches us that our value system should reflect His. That we overlook no one. Everyone is important to God therefore everyone is important to His people. If they accept it or not, it is still provided. Christ showed the love of the Father through His death, for those who would accept it as well as reject it.

When we serve let us be mindful. To the least, for the world, is a reminder that there are people society ignores but should not. To the least, for the Kingdom, means we sought after even those who were out of sight and out of mind to the world.

- Donation of money to assist in down payments on the homes to be purchased.
- Supplies for those to receive on their first day out. (hygiene products, pillows, sheets, blankets, towels & washcloths, alarm clock, etc...)
- Donations of Furniture to be able to adequately furnish each home
- Donations of clothes (we help each new person with clothes as they come out to get started)

Fear's Cure

I feel the dark mist rising
Throwing shade on Your peace
And ask, "What can bring release."

Fear's tentacles bore deeper in my head
Like daggers piercing mind and soul
Playing me as the devil's fool.

But afar off a flash bursts forth
It's glint exposing that liar's defeated play
For as light gashes night, God's Word burns my doubt into day.

Founder's Corner

On the morning of August 6th, 2022, at 3 am, God called me to the front porch with a role of thunder and a gentle voice. When I arrived, He gave this message to me for the church. It's an important message and I hope it speaks to your heart as it does to mine. I love you, Deb

Do Not Play at Christianity

It cost too much to give it to you!
Listen to the still, small voice and obey
He will not easily allow you to sin
Sin always begins as a thought and can most easily be killed at the thought
    Turn to God
    Turn to your brothers
    Listen and heed

Whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are right...think on these things*

Sin will cause GREAT damage**
To yourself in your relationship to God
Fellowship with others
Witness to others
Physical consequences
    To your brethren
    To others watching you
Your witness
Nip it at the bud – kill the thought
There is no sin that is not common unto man***
There is nothing new under the sun
You are surrounded by a host of support
If you ignore the thought – the still small voice will scream "Don't do it!!"

(I have been there...He will not easily let you go. He will not take your free will, but He will provide many ways and opportunities to escape temptation. This is from me and not part of His message.)

Sin only feels good for a very short time and then it destroys****
Your destruction is first to you and your relationship with God, then to your relationships with others – there may also be harsh physical consequences. You may lose your worldly possessions.
You may lose relationships that are important to you.
Ironically, the easiest consequence to 'fix' is your relationship with God. He sees your heart and you cannot fake Him out. He is waiting with His arms wide open.
Relationships with others and physical restoration may take much longer and be much more difficult.
Do not be deceived – sin is VERY costly

*Philippians 4:8 "Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report: if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things."

**Numbers 32:23 "But if ye will not do so. behold, ye have sinned against the LORD: and be sure your sin will find you out."

***1Corinthians 10:13 "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."

****Hebrews 11:25 "Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;"
