Thoughts from an Eagle

Praise Him!

Psalm 54:6b: "I will give thanks to your name, O Lord, for it is good." (ESV)

As we pass from one year into the next, I would encourage you to remember Who our Father is. He is the one that spoke all that is, both seen and unseen, into existence. He formed humanity out of the dirt and breathed life into us. He transcended space and time to save us and keep us for eternity. He is King of kings, Lord of lords, the Almighty God. His name is above all others.

And He has given us that name.

For those who have accepted Christ, we have been adopted into His family! We are His and no one, absolutely nothing, can take that away from us! We are firmly in His hand, and no one can snatch us from it. We now bear His name and have been made His own children! No matter our past, the name that we were born with, marred by sin, is no longer. We now have a new name. And it is good!

Praise Him!

To the Least of These Adults Only Church Saturday Evening Service 01-06-2024

We changed it up for our 1st service of the new year. We had a slide presentation with an interactive discussion including anyone who wanted to participate. It was a wonderful time of praise, worship and reflection about how God sees us and why sometimes it is hard for us to see ourselves as He sees us.

Founder's Corner

Acts 5:31-33

"Him (Jesus) God has exalted to His right hand to be Prince and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. And we are His witnesses to these things, and so also is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey Him."

It's time to prepare. Tomorrow you will not be where you are today! After this moment passes, it cannot be affected by anything you do. There are many levels of getting prepared – prepare to go home – home may be here on earth, or it may be in heaven – eventually, we are all preparing for heaven. Prepare to help your brother. Prepare to defend your beliefs. Prepare to obey God when you hear His voice. Prepare, don't waste time waiting for something to happen – prepare!

I really cannot imagine that anyone in prison does not have their own examples of how God has taken care of them through unimaginable horrors. But just in case, you can use Biblical examples of God taking care of many other men. Shadrach, Meshach, and Abendigo in the fiery furnace... Daniel in the lion's den... David with the lion and the bear (giving him confidence when facing Goliath)... Stephen as he was being stoned... each of His disciples as they faced death... the list goes on forever. As we get older, God gives us personal examples by taking us through difficult situations. It's important not to waste those growth opportunities by not paying attention! Sometimes preparing is a fear causing event. Be assured, God NEVER leaves us alone. Recently I realized that I do not need to wait for a new month, new week, or new day to resume reaching a goal. If I fail, I can start over immediately!! This saves me a lot of wasted time and prevents me from accepting failure. If I resume reaching toward a goal immediately after taking a step or two backwards, I don't have time to feel the failure or accept that I didn't meet the goal. So, keep moving forward.

There are people currently in your life desperately needing what you have already found. It's important to approach people in the 'right' time and in the 'right' way. The only way to know 'right' is to listen to God's Spirit. The Holy Spirit knows:

- What a person needs
- What a person is ready to accept
- If a person is ready to act on what they hear

The Holy Spirit is often (but not always, sometimes it's not our business) willing to share information with us if we are listening and are prepared to obey. I believe discernment is listening to the Holy Spirit. Prayer is not only talking to God, but requires listening as well. If all we do is talk, we miss out on hearing what God has to say to us!! Can you imagine how awesome it is that the God who made the universe and everything in it, the God who loves us enough to die for us, the Lord God Almighty having no other above Him; that is the God that wants to converse with us! As the Holy Spirit discloses, we need to be prepared to obey.

If He says pray – pray. If He says encourage – encourage. If He says correct – correct. Whatever He instructs you to do, pray heavily the entire time you obey. Do nothing less than what He says and do nothing more than what He says. Allow Him to take charge of the people and circumstances you encounter. Listen and obey even in the very small things – they build you to be prepared for the big things. Make listening and obeying the way you live. There are others in your life that have already experienced what you are currently going through. If the Holy Spirit directs you, reach out and allow them to help you. Prepare to listen and obey – even when circumstances are targeted at you – even when you are the person needing help rather than giving help. Oftentimes taking is more difficult than giving...

So, my dear brothers, prepare...

I love you,

Deb
